Sixth form expectations

- Attend every lesson and am/pm registrations.
- Come ready to learn, with the correct equipment.
- Complete independent study outside of lessons.
- Take pride in your work and maintain neat folders.
- Commit to being an outstanding learner. Give 100%, 100% of the time.
- Maintain a positive attitude to learning and accept responsibility for your own learning.
- Engage in our sixth form community.
- Act as a role model for younger students.

Attendance

96% is the our minimum expectation for Sixth Form attendance, although students should aim for 100%.

In context:

96% = 8 school days missed per year

90% = 19 school days missed per year

A student that is 30m late each week will lose the equivalent to 19 days per year

Statistically, missing just 17 days per year is likely to mean a drop for students of 1 grade across their subjects

66 School weeks

- Improves communication and other 'transferable' skills
- Enhances your CV, job/apprenticeship applications

UCAS Website:

Useful skills work experience provides

- Work experience helps students improve many key transferable skills. Universities will be looking for the following skills in all potential degree students:
- self-management
- organisational skills
- communication skills
- leadership
- teamwork
- problem-solving, analytical skills, and critical thinking
- These are skills that can be gained from most types of work experience, such as shop, bar and restaurant work, and should not to be undervalued by your students! So talk through all their work experience – both related and unrelated to their field of study.

Student Feedback from 2022

Please explain how you benefited from the week.

Real life experience working with different kinds of people and an enjoyable week gained a bit of stamina as they put me on a treadmill realised i definitely 100% don't want to work in retail

Got an insight into medicine and cemented my career choice. Want to further research into being a psychiatrist

I looked for geography placements first but they were all filled up, so by the time i asked other places like schools they were all filled up so i ended up working at my job at the library, which was different to a Saturday and fun and I learnt but not something that will help my next steps.

Personally during work experience week, I achieved a significant amount of positive learning in business management and people skills.

I know the different areas and I am sure I want to join the military.

it was really fun and effective.

using ours skills practically

I had fun demolishing a cupboard.

Better understanding of engineering in industry and it was fun

Grasped a few new concepts of web development

I enjoyed working at the primary school however I didn't find it useful for what I want to do as there is nothing nearby that I can do my work experience (that I can get to) at that was what I want to do in the future

Learnt and developed new skills that I have not previously experienced before.

discovered what i want to do

Figured out my future

I gain work experience

learned a lot about court

I gained various team building skills

I don't do it.

Have an insight into the working environment

I learnt about different aspects of the business in the field of work i'm hoping to work in in the future.

I can write about it on my personal statement gained further insight into future career paths

good experiences to add to personal statement e.g writing advertisement brochures

Got an small insight into what jobs look like and links to education
